Green is a Chile Pepper: A Book of Colors
By Roseanne Greenfield Thong
A book about colors and culture.

READING TIPS
- Read the title, author, and illustrator. Talk about the cover illustration.
- On each page, have the child help you name all of the items which represent the color.
- Ask, the child to look at the illustrations and describe what the characters are doing.
- Help the child make another connection by asking if he or she has tasted any of the foods mentioned or pictured in the book.
